Mr. Powers and the Tariff.

"They are charging me with being a "'free trader.' That is false and Mr. "Wadsworth and his friends know it. "I stand by the Democratic platform "which gives no uncertain sound as to " tariff. FRANK POWERS."

That is what Mr. Powers writes with his owne hand, and that is where the BULLETIN placed him, and by his authority. He does not mean that he shall be misunderstood, and to that end has made his meaning so plain that anybody can comprehend it. Any man, who puts him in a position respecting the tariff not in accord with the National Democratic platform misrepresents him.

eral Tracey's letter:

GOVERNOR CLEVELAND AND THE LIBERTY OF WORSHIP BILL.

Editor of the Pilot: In company with other Catholic gentlemen I have devoted considerable time to making an investigation respecting the treatment of the Freedom of Worship Bill in the New York State Legislature of 1883. We called upon a number of competent and reliable persons, who gave information on the subject. In almost every instance our informants, whether clergymen or laymen, evinced great anxiety to be spared the disagreeable experience of having their names dragged into connection with a matter which has already subjected worthy gentlemen to unmerited abuse. After having made all necessary I am happy to be able to state, on my word of honor, was that Governor Cleveland took no steps, either directly or indicately, in favor of or against the passage of the bill. All statements to the contrary are incorrect being words. inquiries, the conclusion we arrived at, age of the bill. All statements to the contrary are incorrect, being made by persons who willfully mistake facts, or who have been misled by false reports.

We learned that the bill, having passed the Senate, was being considered in the Assembly Committee when a member of the Legislature, in an argument favoring the bill, stated what in his opinion the managers of the Randall Island Refuge would be called upon to concede when the bill became a law. The counsel of the House of Refuge, who was opposing the bill, here interposed and said he looked upon this demand as reasonable, and it might be regarded as an olive

THE DAILY BULLETIN. branch extended to the interests he represented. Inasmuch as the object the friends of the bill wished to attain was mainly to obtain a change in the rules of this institution, a feeling sprang up that there might be no necessity for passing a general law. It was determined to endeavor to effect a compromise. At a conference held in New York soon after, at which there were present prominent Catholics, a member of the Assembly Committee and two managers of the House of Refuge, a distinct statement was made of what the Catholic authori-ties demanded. Immediately thereafter through some misunderstanding, the manager thus deputed failed to deliver the meseage it has been alleged that the managers did not act in good faith. They assert, however, that they had hoped to make concessions, but found the demands differed from their expectations. At all events, there is no doubt that the progress of the bill was much delayed by the representatives of the board holding out hope of concessions in the refuge to our people, and afterwards failing to announce promptly the decision of the managers.

After this delay, all efforts to get the bill before the assembly failed. Mem-bers of the Legislature state that this was not due to any underhand work, but that towards the close of the session As-semblymen having bills in charge do not look with favor on efforts to advance other bills out of their regular order. It was stated to us also that prominent catholics had given expression to doubts as to whether Catholic interests called for the passage of this bill. All practi-cal Catholics will of course agree that the Catholic children in the Randal Island House of Refuge should be given proper facilities for hearing Mass and receiving the Sacraments, and all are in duty bound to protest against the present systen.

It is well, however, to call the attention of your readers to the Freedom of Worship Bill in the form it was presented to the Legislature. It was as follows: THE FREEDOM OF WORSHIP BILL.

AN ACT TO SECURE INMATES OF INSTITUTIONS FOR THE CARE OF THE POOR FREE-DOM OF WORSHIP.

The people of the State of New York representing the Senate and Assembly to enact as follows:

SEC. 1. The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall be allowed to all persons in the next section of this Act mentioned.

Many earnest Catholic laymen and not a few of our clergy have talked much about this bill without having read it.

A prominent priest of this Diocese, a was a bigot, and a man adverse to freedom of religion for Catholics. holy man of great experience, told me recently that if the bill had passed, Gov. The Hon. Charles Tracey was secretary of the Catholic Union of New York, and with the personal encouragement of Cardinal McCloskey was active in the formation of Catholic Unions elsewhere. He was full of imperfections, and would probably have been urged by Catholics not to sign it. It is a mattories throughout the State. It is a mat-Gregory, the Great. He was a member of Governor Tilden's staff, and was Commissary General of Subsistence of New York State during Governor Robinson's term.

Without further preface, we give Gentage of Great importance to have a bill all fecting religious rights drawn with the greatest care; and if individuals prepare a general law for the benefit of one institution, every precaution should be taken to avoid errors. Catholics could ter of great importance to have a bill afnot be expected to give united support to carelessly drawn bills simply because it is known that the proposer of the measure means well.

In conclusion, I desire to be distinctly understood that although we made diligen inquiries and followed up all rumors, we failed to find any person who would say that Governor Cleveland in any way, shape or manner, interiered with the progress of the bill in either house of the Legislature.

I am respectfully yours, CHARLES TRACY.

C. E. Dupler, aged thirty-four years, of Equality, Illinois, had been affected with a chronic catarrh which he first discovered six years ago. In succession he lost his smell, taste and hearing. The disease was so malignant that it not only attacked the softer parts, but destroyed the bony partition of the nose and seriously affected the external parts. He could only hear a watch ticking by holding it close to his ear. He suffered intense pain in the nose, from which green, dry clots of offensive odor fell. In this condition he presented himself to Dr. Hartman several months ago. He can now hear a watch eight inches from his right and six inches from his left ear. His taste and smell are again returning, and the external part of the nose is quite well. Few more grateful patients ever left a physician's office than Mr. Dupler. He said, "Why in the world was PERUNA not prescribed for me long ago?"

Cramps of the Stomach.

We have the privilege of reporting the following case. Those similarly affected can get the name and address of Dr. Hartman. The lady does not want her name in the papers. For a year, or years, (the writer does not remember the length (the writer does not remember the length of time,) this lady had cramps, the most fearful, of the stomach, every day and night, "which would be followed by that terrible weakness, which was something wonderful." The suffering and distress of this lady was indescribable and almost unendurable. After all the physicians and medicines had failed, and all hope had almost fled, Dr. Hartman was consulted, and from the first day of taking sulted, and from the first day of taking his Peruna, the cramps and all bad feeling left her, and now for over a month has been entirely free from every symptom. A more thankful patient no doctor ever had.

Mr. Boggs, druggist, Charlestown, Kanawha Co., W. Va., writes: "PERUNA sells well here and gives good satisfaction. Customers speak well of it.

Dr. J. Anderson, Coshocton, Ohio, writes: "Your Peruna sells well and gives good satisfaction. I consider it a splendid medicine."
